The Zangersheide Stallion Days

During the Zangersheide Stallion Days, we invite breeders and horse enthusiasts for an exclusive and focused introduction to our stallions. On four Saturdays during the breeding season, we open the doors of our stallion stable in a small-scale setting, where the stallions are personally introduced. During a tour, you will receive in-depth information about the different stallions, their sport performances, pedigree, genetic strengths and their role within the Zangersheide breeding program. There will be ample opportunity to ask questions and obtain tailored advice for your mare.
